Press Release

A FANTASMAGORICAL TRIP FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES

Kennesaw, Georgia (July 15, 2005) – You’ve heard the music. You know the stars. You grew up with the film. Now it’s time to relive the experience with your family, friends and neighbors.

A 4-story tall inflatable movie screen will be the center of attention during the Kennesaw Parks & Recreation Department and B3 Productions’ free outdoor screening of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang at the Depot on Saturday, July 30.

The movie starts at dusk, but arrive early for music, games and more. Be sure to bring a blanket, lawn chairs and a picnic basket. Food will also be available for purchase on-site.

Inspired by a real car, and based on a story by James Bond creator Ian Fleming, this children’s classic stars Dick Van Dyke as Caractacus Potts. Potts is an eccentric inventor who, determined to fulfill the desire of his children, transforms a broken-down junk car into a shiny new car named “Chitty Chitty Bang Bang”. The car not only drives, but floats and flies.

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang is a magical, mystical adventure, full of memorable music, and the world’s best known “fantasmagorical” car.

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang is Rated G, and is intended for General Audiences.
